

Southern Folklore Quarterly

VOLUME 44

1980

Making a Joyful Noise: An Ethnography of Communication in the Pentecostal Religious Service	Elaine J. Lawless . . .	1
Champion of the Poor: The Outlaw as a Formalized Expression of Peasant Alienation . . .	John M. Coggeshall .	23
Shangana-Tsonga Attitudes toward Death, Examined through Traditional Singers	Thomas F. Johnston .	59
Formula and Tragic Irony in "Sir Patrick Spens."	William M. Ryan . . .	73
Two Ozark Analogues to Two Old French Fabliaux	Thomas D. Cooke . . .	85
The Crockett Almanacs: What Makes a Tall Tale Tall?	Creath S. Thorne . . .	93
Towards an Aesthetic of Folklore and Mythology: W. B. Yeats, 1888-1895	Steven D. Putzel	105
Toni Morrison's Use of Fairy Tale, Folktale, and Myth in The Song of Solomon	Jacqueline de Weever	131
The Female Role in the Karaghizis Performance	Linda Suny Myrsiades	145
The Riverine Myth in Interpretations of Eighteenth Century Virginia	James O'Mara	165
The Valiant Vilela and Wife: Ambiguity within the Brazilian Literatura de Cordel	Candace Slater	179
Japanese Cinderella as a Pubertal Girl's Fantasy	Chieko Irie Mulhern	203
Book Reviews		215